Effective Date: 05/16/17

AUTHORITY: NRS 209.131; NRS 209.356; NRS 209.361; NRS 209.246

PURPOSE:

To ensure Nevada Department of Corrections has established rules of conduct as well as sanctions and procedures for addressing violations defined in writing and communicated to all inmates and staff.

RESPONSIBILITY:

1. The Director of Corrections is responsible, through the respective Deputy Directors, for the implementation of the inmate disciplinary process.

2. The Warden is responsible for ensuring compliance with the inmate disciplinary process and the overall management of the inmate disciplinary process, at their respective institution or facility, through the institution’s or facility’s Operational Procedures.

3. An Associate Warden, under the direction of the Warden, is responsible for the compliance of the inmate disciplinary process by their subordinate staff.

4. All staff and inmates are responsible to have knowledge of and comply with the inmate disciplinary regulations and procedures.

707.01 DEPARTMENT POLICY

1. All inmates committed (including safe keepers) to the Department shall be subject to disciplinary action for violations of the Department’s rules and regulations.

2. Disciplinary action should be taken as soon after the misconduct as is practical.

3. Discipline shall be applied in an impartial and consistent manner.

4. Corporal punishment or inhumane treatment is prohibited.

5. Disciplinary proceedings are an administrative process, unrelated to and not bound by the rules for criminal procedure, civil trials, administrative codes or procedures.
6. Inmate(s) shall be informed that they can appeal through the grievance procedure any portion of their discipline as it relates to due-process or sanctions imposed as a result of the hearing, unless they agree to bargained plea.

7. Inmate(s) sanctioned to disciplinary segregation shall be advised that they can petition the warden for a release from segregation by utilization of the Inmate Request Form (DOC 301), also referred to as a kite, prior to the completion of imposed sanction as a result of demonstrated good conduct after serving one-half of their imposed sanction. Bargained pleas are exempt from early release.

8. Upon commitment to the Department, all inmates shall be issued, and required to sign for a copy of the Inmate Disciplinary Manual and AR 707 Inmate Disciplinary Process.

   A. Signed acknowledgment will be maintained in the inmate’s I-file.

   B. When a literacy or language problem prevents an inmate from understanding the manual, a staff member or translator will assist the inmate in understanding the rules.

9. The manual will be available to all inmates. Availability is satisfied if a copy is kept in the institutional law library or in the living units for those facilities without a law library.

10. All inmates are assumed to have notice of this manual.

11. The inmate disciplinary process includes the following procedures:

   A. Only one charge per incident will be assigned to the inmate on the Notice of Charges form NDOC 3017.

   B. Only the most serious Code violation that shall be supported by “some evidence” will be charged on the NDOC 3017. The finding of the hearing shall not be arbitrary or capricious and the finding can be supported by the hearing officer’s review of the evidence.

   C. No additional charges will be added. Charges will not be stacked – defined as more than one charge per incident.

   D. If at any stage during the hearing process, whether at the Preliminary Hearing, at the Hearing Officer stage, or at a Full Disciplinary Committee, it is known or suspected that the inmate’s mental health or medical condition was a substantial cause of the misconduct and/or that the inmate is assigned to the Mental Health program or has been already diagnosed as Seriously Mentally Ill (SMI), the inmate shall be referred for a psychological evaluation prior to the disciplinary hearing.

   E. The psychological evaluation shall state whether the misconduct was a result of the inmate’s mental health or whether the mental illness contributed to the misconduct, and it shall be included in the written documentation that shall be considered by the Hearing Officer or Committee, when considering the sanctions to be imposed pursuant to Inmate Disciplinary Sanctions in 707.2.

F. If during the psychological evaluation, the staff conducting the evaluation suspects that the misconduct may have been as a result of a medical condition, such as, but not limited to; Dementia, Alzheimer’s, Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), or other condition such as a traumatic brain injury (TBI), the staff person shall refer the inmate to Medical for their review and recommendation.

G. If it is determined that the inmate’s misconduct was a result of his/her mental health status or that the inmate is assigned to the Mental Health program, the inmate shall be given reasonable and appropriate accommodations in preparation for the hearing and the inmate may be provided with assistance during the hearing.

H. If an inmate is diagnosed as Seriously Mental Ill (SMI), or has a medical condition, as determined by a mental health or medical professional, that may have affected the inmate’s behavior which resulted in the Notice of Charges, the Hearing Officer or Disciplinary Committee may mitigate the sanction pursuant to Inmate Disciplinary Sanctions in 707.2.

I. The inmate’s misconduct shall be documented and the finding may include a finding of guilt. However, the sanction for an inmate who is diagnosed as SMI or has a medical condition that directly affects the inmate’s conduct shall not include Disciplinary Segregation or Disciplinary Detention.

J. If an inmate’s mental health or medical condition is of such a nature that the inmate is a threat to self or others or is disruptive to the orderly operation of the facility or institution, the inmate may be placed in administrative segregation. The placement in administrative segregation shall not be considered part of the disciplinary action taken. The placement in administrative segregation shall be temporary until more suitable placement is identified or the condition is treated.

K. If, after the sanction has been mitigated, it is determined that the inmate was not SMI or that there were no medical conditions that should have affected the behavior and the outcome of the hearing, the information relative to the inmate’s manipulation shall be documented and the documentation shall be used to process disciplinary action against the inmate.

L. The Preliminary Hearing Officer has the authority to “amend” a charge, as appropriate, but cannot add any additional charges.

M. A Hearing Officer may reduce the severity of sanction for a violation, if the inmate pleads guilty to the charge. Inmates cannot appeal a guilty plea.

N. A Hearing Officer may reduce the actual sanction for an inmate in a transitional center. This would include, but not limited to, tobacco or other violations that do not include new charges of violations of existing statutes.

O. The designated Preliminary Hearing Officer shall serve notice within 15-calendar days of the date of discovery of the violation; (or)
P. Within 15-calendar days of the completion of investigative work concerning the incident; (or)

Q. In the case of an escapee, within 15-calendar days after the escapee’s return to NDOC custody.

R. If the inmate chooses not to waive the NDOC’s disciplinary hearing process, a hearing shall be conducted and the inmate’s decision not to waive the hearing shall be documented on the disciplinary hearing documents, which the inmate will sign.

S. At least 24 hours prior to any formal hearing before an impartial Disciplinary Hearing Officer, the Notice of Charges shall be served to the inmate. An inmate shall have an opportunity to call witnesses with substantive knowledge of the issues. The witnesses may be present during the hearing at the discretion of the Hearing Officer, and may provide documentary evidence germane to the Notice of Charges.

T. An inmate shall be provided with a written statement by the Disciplinary Hearing Officer as to the evidence relied on, provided that to do so would not jeopardize institutional safety or security or safety of others.

U. A finding of guilt shall be based on “some” evidence. The finding will not be arbitrary or capricious and the finding can be supported by the hearing officer’s review of the evidence.

12. Reliance on any published standard, the use of mandatory language, if such exists, or the creation or procedures related to the conduct of the disciplinary process, including, but not limited to timeframes, witnesses or appeals is solely for the purpose of providing guidance for employees and shall be considered representative of the manner in which the Department has chosen to exercise the Department’s discretion in such matters. The failure of any employee of the Department to follow any procedure shall not result in any mandatory outcome (e.g., dismissal of charges), but shall be one of many factors to be considered in exercising discretion as to the outcome of any violation. A rehearing may be ordered by the Warden, if warranted.

13. Any disciplinary case may be continued so that the Preliminary Hearing Officer or the Disciplinary Hearing Officer may obtain guidance from the Attorney General’s Office concerning any matter in the inmate disciplinary process.

A. Inmate(s) do not have any right or privilege to request or participate in obtaining guidance from the Attorney General’s Office.

B. The Department may seek guidance in writing or verbally.

C. The Department’s request(s) for guidance shall be made only if there is confusion as to the application of the guidelines set forth in this Code.

D. The Office of the Attorney General shall not be asked to render any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of an inmate facing disciplinary charges.
