Press Release

For Immediate Release

January 10, 2017

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that on January 9, 2017 at approximately 7:02 PM a minimum security female inmate walked away from Jean Conservation Camp located in Jean, Nevada approximately 15 miles south of Las Vegas. The inmate, April Barth, #1086478, a 30 year old female, arrived at NDOC from Clark County, September 13, 2016, and was serving 12 to 48 months for Attempted Grand Larceny. She is 5 feet 1 inch tall, green eyes, brown hair and approximately 135 pounds with tattoos of the letter "A" and three dots on her right hand, her name "April" on her left arm as well as other tattoos. Contrary to the attached photo, she is known to paint her eyebrows and her hair is shoulder length.

Barth was last seen in the parking lot of the Gold Strike Casino near the camp. She was wearing blue pants, a blue button down shirt and dark blue sweater with white tennis shoes.

Anyone with information on whereabouts of April Barth is asked to please contact 911 or their local law enforcement.

The NDF trains minimum security inmates to fight wildland fires at the conservation camps. When they are not deployed at a fire, they work in the community handling weed abatement, cleaning up parks or other public service work.
