Walk Away from Humboldt Conservation Camp

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that at approximately 6:00 PM, July 21, 2018, a minimum security male inmate walked away from Humboldt Conservation Camp located in Winnemucca, Nevada.

Inmate Ezekial Earl Derr, #1039198, a 30 year old male, arrived at NDOC from Clark County, February 01, 2016. Derr was serving 12 to 72 months for Larceny, Burglary, Home Invasion and Obtain/Possess Credit/Debit Card without Owner's Consent. Inmate was last seen wearing prison blue pants with a blue shirt and black work boots.

White is 5 feet 11 inches tall, 190 pounds with brown eyes, and black hair. A re-take warrant has been issued. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Ezekial Earl Derr, please contact 911 or their local law enforcement agency.

Ezekial Earl Derr

NDOC partners with the Nevada Division of Forestry to run 9 Conservation Camps in the state. The camps are for minimum security inmates who are scheduled to be released within two years. Inmates in the camps are trained to fight wildland fires and are deployed to handle weed abatement, highway clean-up and other jobs when in the off season. Over 500 inmates assisted with sandbagging and other jobs during the recent flooding in Northern Nevada.
