UPDATE:

Steven Timothy Gant, #91477, was taken back into custody at approximately 6:00 PM.

The Washoe County Sheriff's Office arrested Gant after receiving a tip from an alert business owner. Gant was located and arrested in the Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe without incident. NDOC thanks the Washoe County Sheriff's Office for their assistance in apprehending Gant. He was returned to the Northern Nevada Correctional Center in Carson City where he will be housed.

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that at approximately 2:00 PM this afternoon a minimum security male inmate walked away from a work detail in the forest north of Lake Tahoe. He had been housed at the Stewart Conservation Camp located in South Carson City, Nevada and was out on a work detail with Nevada Division of Forestry (NDF).

Inmate Steven Timothy Gant, #91477, a 30 year old white male, arrived at NDOC from Washoe County, June 16, 2017. Gant was serving 2 to 9 years for Burglary and Grand Larceny of a Motor Vehicle. He was last seen this afternoon while completing hazardous fuel reduction in the forest north of Lake Tahoe near Incline. He was wearing blue jeans, a white tee and blue button down shirt with black boots.

Gant is 6 feet 1 inches tall, 165 lbs, blue eyes, brown hair with a fair complexion. A retake warrant has been issued. Staff from NDOC, NDF, the Inspector General's Office and Washoe County Sheriff's Office are assisting in the search. Anyone with information on whereabouts of Steven Timothy Gant, please contact 911 or their local law enforcement agency.

NDOC partners with the Nevada Division of Forestry to run 9 Conservation Camps in the state. The camps are for minimum security inmates who are scheduled to be released within two years. Inmates in the camps are trained to fight wildland fires and are deployed to handle weed abatement, highway clean-up and other jobs when in the off season.
