Inmate Walks Away From Stewart Conservation Camp in Carson City

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that on August 18, 2019, a minimum security inmate walked away from the Stewart Conservation Camp (SCC), located outside Carson City, NV.

Inmate James Park, #74137, a 51-year old male was found missing during an institutional count at SCC. He arrived at NDOC from Washoe County on June 12, 2019 and was transferred to SCC where he was serving 12 – 36 months for Attempted Burglary and Uttering a Forged Instrument.

Park is 5 feet 11 inches tall, 170 pounds with brown eyes and brown facial hair. He has a FOREVER AND EVER, AMEN tattoo across his neck; FAMILY SECOND / RFA / GOD FIRST tattoos on his right arm; Christian Cross with FAITH LOVE HOPE / COUNTRY BOY / MAN OF GOD / STRONG / 56 / FORD TRUCK / TRIBAL BAND tattoos on his left arm; SWEETHEART SHANA SOULMATE FOREVER NEVER AMEN tattoos on his chest; and COUNTRY BOY / DADDY'S BOYS JAMES JOSHUA JUSTIN MIKEY tattoos on his back.

A re-take warrant has been issued. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of James Park should immediately contact 911 or their local law enforcement agency.

NDOC partners with the Nevada Division of Forestry to run nine Conservation Camps in the state. The camps are for minimum security inmates who are scheduled to be released within two years. Inmates in the camps are trained to fight wildland fires and are deployed to handle weed abatement, highway clean-up and other jobs when in the off season.
