Minimum Security Offender Walks Away From Conservation Camp in Carson City

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that on Tuesday, May 12, 2020, a minimum security offender walked away from the Stewart Conservation Camp (SCC), located in Carson City, NV.

Offender Alfonso Pinuelas-Duran, # 1230440, a 29-year old male was found missing during an institutional count at SCC. He arrived at the NDOC from Washoe County on March 3, 2020 and was transferred to SCC where he was serving 72-180 Months for DUI (3).

Pinuelas-Duran is 5 feet 11 inches tall, 165 pounds with brown eyes and black hair. He is Hispanic, and has scars on his left hand, thumb, and forearm.

The Nevada Department of Corrections is committed to building a safer community by striving to incorporate progressive best practices in all aspects of corrections. NDOC houses nearly 14,000 persons with felony convictions in 18 facilities statewide. For more information visit www.doc.nv.gov.

A retake warrant has been issued. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Pinuelas-Duran should immediately contact 911.
