July 29, 2016

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports a minimum security inmate walked away from a work assignment with the Nevada Division of Forestry (NDF) at approximately 12:30 PM this afternoon. The inmate, Juwan Ameil Stuart, #1156374, was on a cleaning assignment at the corner of I-95 and Valley View in Las Vegas, when he walked away from the work crew. Stuart had been housed at Three Lakes Valley Conservation Camp located approximately 30 miles north of Las Vegas, Nevada.

Inmate Juwan Stuart, a 36 year old black male, arrived at NDOC from Clark County, March 23, 2016, and was serving 14 to 48 months for Possession of a Firearm by a Prohibited Person. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall, brown eyes, black hair and approximately 200 pounds. He was last seen wearing blue jeans, white tee-shirt with a blue button down shirt and black boots.

The NDF trains minimum security inmates to fight wildland fires at the conservation camps. When they are not deployed at a fire, they work in the community handling weed abatement, cleaning up parks or other public service work.

Anyone with information on whereabouts of Juwan Ameil Stuart, please contact 911 or their local law enforcement.
