Zachary David Tankersley

The Nevada Department of Corrections reports a minimum security inmate walked away from a work crew in Reno, Nevada this morning.

Inmate Zachary David Tankersley, a 20 year old white male, was working with the Nevada Department of Forestry doing weed abatement this morning near the 580 freeway at South Meadows when he left the area. Tankersley is 5 feet 11 inches tall, approximately 160 pounds with green eyes and brown hair. He was last seen wearing blue jeans, white tee-shirt and black work boots.

Tankersley was admitted to the NDOC March 1, 2016 and was serving 12 to 36 months for Burglary out of Washoe County. He was housed at the Stewart Conservation Camp in Carson City. It is believed Tankersley is still in the Reno area, though he may have ties to the Stockton, California. Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Zachary David Tankersley is asked to contact local law enforcement or call 911.

The Nevada Department of Corrections is committed to protecting the public, the employees and the offenders. NDOC houses nearly 13,500 persons with felony convictions in 18 facilities statewide. For more information on NDOC visit www.doc.nv.gov.
