

Nevada Department of Corrections

Public Information Office: 775-887-3309
PIO Brooke Keast Cell: 775-350-0037

September 8, 2017

UPDATE:

The NDOC Investigators from the Inspector General's Office arrested Michael Ariola, #1182512, without incident September 7, at approximately 8:00 PM, at a motel located in Reno, Nevada. Inmate Ariola has been returned to Northern Nevada Correctional Center.

September 5, 2017

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that at approximately 10:00 am this morning a minimum security male inmate walked away from a work detail near the Department of Motor Vehicles in downtown Carson City. He was housed at the Stewart Conservation Camp located in South Carson City, Nevada.

Inmate Michael Ariola, #1182512, a 35 year old white male, arrived at NDOC from Pershing County, August 11, 2017. Ariola was serving 16 to 72 months for Possession of Stolen Property. He was last seen this morning while working on a landscaping crew near the downtown DMV location.

Ariola is 5 feet 10 inches tall, 185 lbs, hazel eyes, with a fair complexion and dark hair. Ariola has a tattoo on his left hand that says "tattoo machine" and a tribal design on his right lower leg. A retake warrant has been issued. Anyone with information on whereabouts of Michael Ariola, please contact 911 or their local law enforcement agency.

Michael Ariola

NDOC partners with the Nevada Division of Forestry to run 9 Conservation Camps in the state. The camps are for minimum security inmates who are scheduled to be released within two years. Inmates in the camps are trained to fight wildland fires and are deployed to handle weed abatement, highway clean-up and other jobs when in the off season. Over 500 inmates assisted with sandbagging and other jobs during the recent flooding in Northern Nevada.