Inmate Walks Away From Northern Nevada Transitional Housing in Reno, NV

The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) reports that on November 5, 2019, a minimum security inmate walked away from Northern Nevada Transitional Housing in Reno, NV.

Inmate William "Willie" Vareschi, #79906, a 43-year old male failed to return to Northern Nevada Transitional Housing. He arrived at NDOC from Clark County on September 26, 2016 and was serving the final part of a 4-to-10 year conviction for Burglary.

A "NO BAIL" warrant has been issued. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of William "Willie" Vareschi should immediately contact 911 or their local law enforcement agency.
