Attachment 10

Affidavit Of

Jeremy A. Crozier

1) I, Jeremy A. Crozier (hereinafter "affivit") do hereby declare that I am above the age of eighteen (18) years old, of sound mind, and that I have direct and personal knowledge pertaining to the events, conduct, paper, and documents within this here affividavit, and that all statements contained herein are made to the best of my knowledge under the pains and penalties of purjury.

2) That on February 12, 2010, affivit who is a prisoner in the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) filed a 42 U.S.C. §1983 Civilsuit Complaint after the exhaustion of his administrative remedies, in the United States District Court, District of Nevada, Reno Known as: Crozier v. Cortez-Masto, 3:10-cv-00082-LRH-VPC (Pending) against various State officers and prison officials alleging that their conduct directed at affivit violated his fundamental United States Constitutional rights in a wanton, and unnecessary fashion causing him injury. Affivit named in this Civilsuit Complaint as defendants: Renee Baker, Debra Brooks, Ronald Bryant, Robert Chambliss, Alice Jacoby, Honorable Nevada Attorney General Catherine Cortez-Masto, James Cox, former Honorable Governor James "Jim" Gibbons, E.K. McDaniel, Honorable Secretary of State Ross Miller, Michael Oxborrow, James Toycen, Harry Peltzer, Juston Perkins, Howard Skolnik, Jady Westphal, and Claude Willis.

3) That during the course of litigation of foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, affivit received "Acceptance Of Service," and "Amended Acceptance Of Service" from former Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11612) on behalf of all named defendants in affivit's Civilsuit Complaint, which Mr. Ramos also filed with the United States District Court.

4) That during the course of litigation of affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, former Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11692) filed with the United States District Court, "Notice Of Appearance" declaring him as defense Counsel for all foresaid defendants in affivit's Civilsuit Complaint.

5) That affivit received "Notice Of Intent To Not Proceed With Mediation" from former Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11692), on or about, November 12, 2010, which Mr. Ramos also filed with the United States District Court.

6) That during the course of litigation of affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, affivit sent to former Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11692) at least three(3) Settlement Offers, or settlement negotiation offers via the United States Parcel Service. Two(2) of the settlement Offers were never responded to whatsoever by Mr. Ramos, nor any other person in the Nevada Attorney General Office. One was declined by Mr. Ramos via U.S. Parcel Service after he Claimed in a letter that he Consulted his Clients.

7) That during the course of litigation of affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, on or around January 2011, affivit received "Notice Of Appearance" from Chief Deputy Attorney General Stephen D. Quinn declaring him as defense Counsel for all foresaid defendants in affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, which Mr. Quinn also filed with the United States District Court.

8) That on February 9, 2011, affivit sent to Chief Deputy Attorney General Stephen D. Quinn a letter for settlement negotiation talks regarding affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint via the United States Parcel Service. At no time whatsoever did affivit receive a response from Mr. Quinn, nor any other person in the Nevada Attorney General Office.

9) That on or about March 18, 2011, affivit received "Notice Of Appearance" from Deputy Attorney General Kelly S. Werth (Nevada Bar No. 6860) declaring him as defense Counsel for all foresaid defendants in affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, which Mr. Werth also filed with the United States District Court.

10) That during the course of litigation of affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, inmate with medical care. Testified to by Nevada Department of Corrections employees.

A very clear pattern has emerged here. Where is the Justice from the highest prosecutor in the State Cortez-Masto, and former Federal Judge, and Nevada State Attorney General Brain Sandoval? who investigates Catherine Cortez-Masto? She is lucky I didn't die, and I still havn't received medical attention, nor been tested for diseases. When does E.K. McDaniel, Debra Brooks, and Correction Officers get fired from their employment?

It is sad when the running joke is, "If you want to live forever, work for the Nevada Department of Corrections." Several times have I asked this board to fix prison policy administration regulation (#339) to reflect staff misconduct as prisoner abuse, which has never been done in the history of the State.

Forcing another to come into contact with human urine and feces has resulted in attempted homicide throughout this nation for over twenty years now. Yet, why do I have to get permission from prison officials to press Charges againsnt prison officials? Needless to say, I have been denied. I'm telling this Board now, I want to press Criminal Charges againsnt E.K. McDaniel, Debra Brooks, and Renee Baker. I want this Board to make oppertunity for me to do that immediately. I am still living in a cell with urine and feces and have been for over a month.

RE: Formal Complaint

Dear Bar Counsel:

From the onset, Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 41.0322(4)(2001) states in full:

> If a person has exhausted the person's administrative remedies and has filed and is proceeding with a civil action to recover compensation for the loss of the person's personal property, property damage, personal injuries or any other claim arising out of a tort, the Office of the Attorney General must initiate and conduct all negotiations for settlement relating to that action.

On February 12, 2010, after exhausting all the administrative remedies available, I Jeremy A. Crozier, as a prisoner in the Nevada Department Of Corrections (NDOC) filed a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Civil suit Complaint in the United States District Court, District of Nevada, Reno for various United States Constitutional violations related to my Conditions Of Confinement and which caused injury to my person. The defendants named in this Civilsuit are State Officers, and prison officials named, Renee Baker, Debra Brooks, Ronald Bryant, Robert Chambliss, Alice Jacoby, Honorable Nevada Attorney General Catherine Cortez-Masto, James "Greg" Cox, former Honorable Nevada Governor James "Jim" Gibbons, E.K. McDaniel, Honorable Secretary of State Ross Miller, Michael Oxborrow, James Toyren, Harry Pelter, Juston Perkins, Howard Skolnik, Judy Westphal, and Claude Willis. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, the Honorable Judge Larry R Hicks Conducted a preliminary Screening of my Civilsuit Complaint on November 18, 2011, and permitted my Claims in relation to my First, Fourth, and Eighth Amendment Constitutional rights to proceed; as well as, 42 U.S.C. § 1985 Conspiracy Claims, and respondent Superior Claims. Litigation is still pending, and this Civilsuit is known as: Crozier v. Cortez-Masto, 3:10-cv-00082-LRH-VPC (U.S. District Court for Nevada, Reno).

Since the inception of my Civilsuit, I have made Six(6) different Settlement offers, or Settlement negotiation offers at various times to the Nevada Attorney General Office, Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11692), Chief Deputy Attorney General Stephen D. Quinn, and Kelly S. Werth (Nevada Bar No. 6860) who have each tendered legal defense of the named Civilsuit defendants during the Course of litigation pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute 41.0339.

However, Mr. Ramos, Mr. Quinn, nor Mr. Werth informed their Clients of any possible Settlement offers, nor Settlement negotiation opportunities. See Signature Signed statements of defendants Renee Baker, Ronald Bryant, and Robert Chambliss. Thus, Mr. Ramos, Mr. Quinn, and Mr. Werth have demonstrated a complete lack of respect for Nevada State laws, Nevada taxpayers, and their Clients through their acts, or omissions in violation of NRS 41.0322(4); as well as, the professional and ethical Code of Conduct, and responsibility that each attorney in the Great State of Nevada owes as public Servents under Supreme Court Rules, especially to the unsuspecting Clients they represent. In addition, they have needlessly prolonged the litigation of this Civil Suit at Nevada taxpayers and my expense.

In light of Mr. Ramos, Mr. Quinn, and Mr. Werth's willful and deliberate Conduct, using the federal Court as a mechism to violate State statutory laws, they should each be Suspended for a minimum of twelve (12) months, the maximum fined imposed, and their Conduct brought to the attention of the public through media publications. Not only have they burdened the public, Judicial Community and their Clients, but they have disgraced the legal profession, and disrupted the required fragile balance of trust between the Community they represent and Lawyers everywhere. They have abused the Cloak of trust placed in them as State employees in the Nevada Attorney General Office, and brought shame to Nevada government officials everywhere. Thus, the Bar Counsel must not deal with Mr. Ramos, Mr. Quinn, nor Mr. Werth with any Sympathy whatsoever. The Bar Counsel must Consider not only the unlawful, and unethical Conduct of these individuals, but the ramifications of their Conduct upon Nevada's government, Citizenry, and the Judicial and legal Community everywhere.

Ely State Prison
4569 North State Route #490
Ely, Nevada 89301

Respectfully,

Jeremy A. Crozier

affivit sent at least two(2) settlement offers, or settlement negotiation talks offers via the United States Parcel Service to Deputy Attorney General Kelly S. Werth (Nevada Bar No. 6860), which were never responded to by Mr. Werth, nor any other person in the Nevada Attorney General office.

11) That during the course of litigation of affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint, and after the time affivit made numerous settlement offers, and settlement negotiation offers to the Nevada Attorney General Office, and employees thereof, such as Richard J. Ramos, Stephen D. Quinn, and Kelly S. Werth, affivit received signature signed responses from defendants Renee Baker, Ronald Bryant, and Robert Chambliss in May 2011, indicating that they had no knowledge of any settlement offers, nor settlement negotiation possibilities whatsoever in affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint.

12) That in May 2011, affivit sent carbon copies of this here affidavit to the Nevada State Bar in conjunction with a filed Complaint against former Deputy Attorney General Richard J. Ramos (Nevada Bar No. 11692), Chief Deputy Attorney General Stephen D. Quinn, and Deputy Attorney General Kelly S. Werth (Nevada Bar No. 6860) to the Board of Prison Commissioners, which is comprised of the Honorable Governor Brain Sandoval, Honorable Nevada Attorney General Catherine Cortez-Masto, and the Honorable Secretary of State Ross Miller, as well as, Several media outlet groups in the Great State of Nevada.

13) At no time whatsoever, has any person in the Office of the Attorney General of Nevada, ever initiated, nor conducted negotiations for settlement relating to affivit's foresaid Civilsuit Complaint.

Sworn under the pains and penalities of perjury on this 25th day of May 2011.

Dear Board of Prison Commissioners:

I would like to know why everytime Attorney General Catherine

Cortez-Masto is named in a lawsuit, She, nor the employees under her Supervision adhere to State Statutory laws, nor the basic professional and ethical Code each attorney takes an oath to up-hold as outlined in the Nevada Supreme Court Rules.

In Case Crozier v. Cortez-Masto, 3:10-cv-00082-LRH-VPC (filed in the United States District Court, District of Nevada, Reno)(Pending) several Deputy Attorney Generals, one of which was a Supervisor, failed to inform their Clients of the Settlement offers I made. See attached State Bar Complaint. A Civilsuit where I Claimed I was forced to live with human urine and excerment (Docket #13 - Count II). Now as a result of Cortez-Masto's failures, I've been put back in a cell with human urine and excerment, and have been living here this way since April 18, 2011, due to E.K. McDaniel, and Debra Brooks' orders as they are Wardens at Ely State Prison, and who are also defendants in the foresaid Civilsuit. My food Comes into Contact with the excerment three(3) times a day, and I have been denied medical attention since I have become extremely sick as a result. Not only is the original incident on video Camera with Warden Debra Brooks, and Warden Renee Baker, but I've had to file a petition for a Restraining Order to get all these Wardens to stop forcing me to live with feces. Yet, E.K. McDaniel gets promoted to Deputy Director of operations?

Recently, Case Riker v. Gibbons, 3:08-cv-00115-LRH-VPC (United States District Court, District of Nevada), Catherine Cortez-Masto who was a named defendant, failed to investigate E.K. McDaniel for murder of a prison inmate after failing to provide that
