

STATE OF NEVADA
Department of Corrections

Acting PIO W.C. "Bill" Quenga: wquenga@doc.nv.gov

Press Release

For Immediate Release:

June 2, 2021

Inmate walkaway captured

Inmate Ray Johannsen, # 1191781, the minimum-security inmate who walked away from a Nevada Division of Forestry fire crew around noon is back in custody.

Johannsen, 42, who was determined missing from a crew working north of Sand Harbor in Washoe Valley was captured in Incline Village shortly after 2 p.m.

Johannsen was housed at the Stewart Conservation Camp. He arrived at the Nevada Department of Corrections on Aug. 25, 2020, from Elko County. He was serving a sentence of 16 to 40 months for attempting to traffic a controlled substance. He was scheduled for parole in July.

Additional charges are pending.

Ray Johannsen, 1191781