

Nevada Department of Corrections

PRISON RAPE ELIMINATION ACT

PREA

The Nevada Department of Corrections has a Zero Tolerance policy for any form of sexual misconduct, sexual abuse, and sexual harassment of any offender by staff, contractor, volunteer, or other offenders.

If you experience, witness, or suspect sexual abuse or sexual harassment. You may report using ANY of the following methods. Anonymous reports are welcome, but often difficult to respond to. Please provide as much detail as safely possible.

- Tell ANY staff person
- Write to any staff person.
- Dial the PREA message hotline *3152 (a pin is not needed):
  - The PREA hotline is a free call and messages are recorded. Calls go directly to the Office of the Inspector General, PREA Management Division.
  - The PREA hotline is a message line and not monitored 24hrs a day.
  - If an emergency, report immediately to staff.
- File a grievance
- Tell a third party, family member, friend, or support person. They may report on your behalf.

Offenders may also report to an outside entity that is not part of NDOC.

Offenders may request DOC form 2100 from unit staff, Facility PREA Compliance Manager, unit caseworker, from the law library or write a letter.

New Mexico Corrections Department
PREA Coordinator
P.O. Box 27116
Santa Fe, New Mexico 87502

The outside agency will not respond to or investigate your report. New Mexico Corrections Department (NMCD) will send the DOC 2100 or written correspondence to the Nevada Department of Corrections, Office of Inspector General - PREA Management Division for review and investigation.

Offenders misusing PREA reporting options may receive a notice of charges.