

Employee Recognition August 2023 – Karina Leal and Mary Felix

The Nevada Department of Corrections is shining a spotlight on a dynamic duo who have been the driving force in fostering unity and camaraderie within the agency.

Karina Leal and Mary Felix turn employee gatherings and events into engaging and enjoyable experiences. Their tireless efforts ensure that every employee feels valued and appreciated, creating an environment where unity thrives. Both received a well-deserved Certificate of Appreciation and tokens for their remarkable contributions to the Stewart Employee Committee and their role in boosting morale throughout the workplace.

Deputy Directors commends these exceptional women as the true "go-to" resources for all things teamwork and collaboration.
