TRAININGS FOR VICTIM NOTIFICATION SERVICE

The Nevada Department of Corrections and local law enforcement will host training sessions for the public in various Northern Nevada locations regarding the Nevada Victim Information and Notification Everyday [VINE] service. They are free and open to the public.

The training sessions are designed to promote awareness and increase usage of Nevada's VINE system among law enforcement, jail staff, victim advocates, community organizations, and the general public.

VINE provides free, confidential access to offender custody information by phone and online. Registered users can be notified by phone or e-mail when an offender is released from jail or prison.

Training dates, times and locations are:

Tuesday, June 21, 2016 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Humboldt County Courthouse – Meeting Room
50 West 5th Street, Winnemucca, NV

Wednesday, June 22, 2016 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Pershing County Community Center
820 6th Street, Lovelock, NV

Thursday, June 23, 2016 from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Regional Public Safety Training Center, Room 108
5190 Spectrum Boulevard, Reno, NV

To register for any of the trainings, go to: <http://go.appriss.com/nvvinetraining.html> Please provide your name, title, e-mail and include the session you wish to attend. For more information on NV VINE, you can go to www.vinelink.com or call 1-888-268-8463.

For questions, please contact Traci Dory, Victim Services Officer, Nevada Department of Corrections, at 775-887-3393 or by e-mail at tdory@doc.nv.gov.

The Nevada Department of Corrections is committed to protecting the public, the employees and the offenders. NDOC houses nearly 13,500 persons with felony convictions in 18 facilities statewide. For more information on NDOC visit www.doc.nv.gov.
